CURRENT COMMENT.

The world's attention continues to concentrate on the Japs, who in turn continue to concentrate on Port Arthur. It is the most watched spot on the map of the world today.—Boston Herald.

Much more stringent legislation is needed and much greater watchfulness on the part of the authorities if we are to prevent the unloading upon us annually of the scum of Europe.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Republicans and Democrats are agreed on one point—both are in favor of trade arrangements with foreign countries when all the advantages are on the side of the United States.—Toronto Mail and Empire.

In this year, as in those that have preceded, many millions of dollars' worth of precious woodlands will be burned away solely because we are too indifferent to their value to undertake their preservation.—San Francisco Call.

Food adulterations and deceptions seem to be innumerable, one of the latest being the discovery that "monkey" real is frequently sold as potted game and fowl. The commissariat of civilization evidently is in a bad way.—New York Tribune.

Scent Powder For Linen.

One ounce of coriander, one ounce oforris root, one ounce of rose leaves, one ounce of aromatic calamus, two ounces of lavender flowers, a quarter of a dram of rhodium wood, five grains of musk. Mix well together, reduce to coarse powder and place in muslin bags among linen. It scents deliciously.

ESTATE OF WILLIAM CASSIE.

STATE OF VERMONT. In Probate Court, District of Washington, ss: I, held in Montpelier, in and for said District, on the 15th day of August, A. D. 1904.

George Cassie, Administrator of the Estate of William Cassie, late of the City of Barre, in said District, deceased, makes application to said Court, with the consent and approbation in writing of the widow and heirs of said deceased, residing in the State of Vermont, for license to sell all of the real estate of said deceased, situated in the City of Barre, in said District, to wit: Homestead place on Merchant street, including the interest of the widow of said deceased therein and the homestead right, representing that the sale thereof would be beneficial to the widow and heirs of said deceased, and those interested in his estate, in order to convert said real estate into money.

Whereupon, it is ordered by said Court, that said application be referred to a session thereof, to be held at the Probate Office, in said Montpelier, on the 5th day of September, A. D. 1904, for hearing and decision thereon; and it is further ordered, that all persons interested be notified hereof, by publication of notice of said application and order thereon three weeks successively in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper published at the City of Barre, in this state, and in some newspaper in the neighborhood of those interested, before said time of hearing, that they may appear at said time and place, and, if they see cause, object thereto.

By the Court. Attest.
